CRUSHED BY HOOF OF A MAD HORSE

Vicious Brute Fractures Skull and Ribs of Victim.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, August 30.—Charles Sharp, a stableman, was terribly injured at 5 o'clock this morning at Gallagher's stable, 718 Grove street, by being kicked by a vicious horse. Sharp was about to take the horse from the stall and as he stooped to loosen the rope by which the animal was tied the beast suddenly struck out with both of his forefeet, kicking the man in the head, fracturing his skull and inflicting severe scalp wounds. The man yelled with pain, and although wounded managed to creep away, but not until the beast had dealt two more blows, one fracturing a rib on the left side, and the other making a bad abrasion of the right leg.

Richard Mansfield, Greatest American Actor, Passes Away

THE LATE RICHARD MANSFIELD.

Victim of the 'White Plague'

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
NEW LONDON, Aug. 30.—Richard Mansfield, the best known actor on the American stage, passed away this morning at his summer residence, Seven Oaks, Ocean avenue. Death was due to disease of the liver aggravated by complications. Dr. H. Allen, a local physician, who has been in charge since Mr. Mansfield's arrival here from Saranac Lake, N. Y., states that death was not entirely unexpected, although the fact had not been made public. Mr. Mansfield's condition had been reported as being excellent. It was stated that he stood the journey well from Saranac Lake and that he was up and around his home here until three days ago. Then a turn for the worse set in and Mr. Mansfield was confined to his room. On Thursday Dr. McClellan of Pittsburgh was summoned. Dr. Allen said today that he had feared the worst for several days. There were a number of conditions that prevented his getting well.

Garfield, secretary of the interior, announced today that no other effort will be made by the administration toward bringing up again in Congress the question of the joint statehood of Arizona and New Mexico. This verdict of the people recently expressed in these territories will be accepted by the President, as Garfield said.

FAINTS AS HUSBAND'S GUILT IS PRONOUNCED

Manslaughter Verdict Is Brought Against A. C. McGill After All-Night Deliberation by Jurymen.

Arthur C. McGill was convicted of manslaughter this morning shortly after 11 o'clock by a jury in Judge Harris' court. Since 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the jury deliberated on the case. At midnight they were taken from their quarters at the Key Route Inn to court to hear what crime could be attached to the charge presented to them by District Attorney Brown. Judge Harris quoted the law and the jurors were taken back to their lodgings. At 9:30 o'clock they were in the jury box for further instructions on the manslaughter charge. This was given and they retired for over an hour.

ARTHUR MCGILL.

Frank L. Rawson, attorney for McGill, asked Judge Harris to continue sentence until September 10 when a motion for a new trial will be made. According to the remarks of several of the jurors, one of the peers held out during the deliberations and asked for the death penalty. The remainder of the jurors were satisfied to allow McGill off on the manslaughter charge with the recommendation of mercy.

COURT REFUSES TO GRANT M'CLUNG'S SLAYER RELEASE

Alexander Garnett's Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus Has Been Denied.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Alexander B. Garnett was again remanded to the custody of the sheriff by the District Court of Appeal this morning. Garnett was endeavoring to obtain his release on a writ of habeas corpus.

Records destroyed. Garnett's attempt to obtain his release through a writ of habeas corpus was based upon the fact that the Superior Court record in his case was destroyed by the fire, and he held that he was being kept in prison only on the strength of a commitment by a justice of the peace.

WITNESSES CLAIM THEY'LL FIX MURDER ON ROCES

One Suspect Released, as Police Believe They Have Slayer of Francis Rubio in Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—The effort to fix the identity of the murderer of Francis Rubio, who was found with his throat cut in a vacant lot on Franklin street yesterday morning, Detective Taylor has about decided to release John Gascone, who was arrested yesterday on suspicion. The only reason for the release of Gascone was that he was a witness on a trip through the Barbary street on Monday night, and these witnesses, mostly Italians, will be examined at the coroner's office at 1 o'clock this morning.

The identity might have led Gascone to an end to Rubio's life. Later developments have made it plain to Detective Taylor that Gascone is innocent of the crime. The police believe that Alfred Rocas, arrested almost immediately after the discovery, is the guilty man. They claim to have witnesses who claim to have seen the man together on a trip through the Barbary street on Monday night, and these witnesses, mostly Italians, will be examined at the coroner's office at 1 o'clock this morning.

FELLED BY FOOTPADS, JEWELS AND MONEY GONE

Morris Barron Beaten Insensible and Thugs Take Gems Worth $300 and Escape.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Morris Barron, proprietor of a barber shop at 2985 Mission street, was held up and robbed of considerable money, and then badly beaten by three thugs, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, and up to noon today the police had received no clew as to the identity of his assailants.

Barron left his home in the Mission early last evening and proceeded to do the line along Fillmore street and Golden Gate avenue. He was very flashily dressed, wore a magnificent diamond ring on his hand, a diamond stickpin in his tie, and had over $100 on his person. During the evening he visited the theater and had drinks in a number of saloons. He conversed with several unknown people in some of the resorts and displayed his money a number of times.

About 1 o'clock this morning he decided that it was about time to go home, and being a union man, and as the buses had ceased running, he decided to walk home. He was proceeding along Buchanan street when just as he reached the corner of Fulton, a man stepped in front of him and asked in sharp tones, "What have you got?"

"Nothing," said Barron, backing away.

"You lie," said the man, and he made a hit at Barron, but missed his mouth. Barron was about to take to his heels when two other footpads came across from the opposite corner and he received a stinging blow on the side of the face which sent him unconscious to the side of the street.

He remembers nothing further of what took place and cannot tell how he managed to reach his home. But his money, amounting to over $100, also his horseshoe stickpin containing fifteen diamonds and valued at $300 were missing.

ATHLETE CRIPPLED BY FALL SEEKS SOLACE IN DEATH

ALAMEDA, Aug. 30.—In the thick shrubbery in a lot at the corner of Union street and Lincoln avenue, the lifeless body of Emil Hearther, a cripple, was found this morning. At his side lay his crutches, and a short distance from the body was a bottle with a label of the Owl Drug Company marked "Carbolic Acid." The body was discovered where it lay partly hidden by the brush by a boy, Edward Johnson.

Last night, just four years after he had become a cripple, Hearther disappeared from the home of his brother at 1811 Union street; two blocks from where the body was found.

HURT IN FALL.

Four years ago while at work tearing down the old Presbyterian Church at the corner of Yerkes avenue and Central avenue, he was injured by a falling wall and was crippled for life. Up to the time of being injured he was a man of magnificent physique and was a prominent member of the Oakland Wheelmen. He was one of the fastest bicycle riders in the city.

FATE OF GLASS SOON TO BE AGAIN WITH JURY

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Deputy District Attorney John O'Garra resumed his argument in the Glass case this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Neither Attorney Delmas, nor Coogan was present, the defense being represented by McKillop alone. Delmas is working on his argument which he aims to make a masterpiece. Delmas will begin at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and close at 3:30. After that Mr. Honey has two hours. Judge Lawlor is planning to instruct the jury in the evening so that the case of Louis Glass will be in the hands of the second jury tonight.

At 10 o'clock Attorney T. C. Coogan opened the argument for the defense. He began by calling upon the jury to consider their responsibility and that with them rested the only resort of an innocent man unjustly accused. Then he passed to the question of reasonable doubt, and emphasized the importance of the instructions which the court would give. Coming down to the evidence in the case Coogan took up the analogy of an imaginary murder case. It was a case in which he had seen the dead countenance across the street from the St. Francis Hotel. He saw the man fall, heard swearing and cursing and observed three men running away.

The men are caught—one turned state's evidence.

"I am called as a witness," said Coogan, dramatically. "I tell the whole story. Mr. O'Garra asked me if that was the man who struck the blow. I don't know. Mr. Honey would ask for my best recollection, and try to get something in that way. Would that man be convicted?"

Fire Forces Folk Unclad Into Street

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 30.—A fire in the Cantabrigia apartments in this city early today endangered the lives of the members of twenty-eight families, including almost one hundred people and caused a property loss estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000. Several persons were taken out of the building unclad from the effects of smoke. The blaze spread so rapidly that the occupants were unable to save scarcely anything, many being forced into the street in their night clothes.

Woman Entices Man To Robbers, Who Slay

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 30.—Mr. E. Singleton, a former magistrate of Covington, Ky., who was found terribly beaten in a Richmond street house in this city last Wednesday, died at the City Hospital last night. Singleton was set to the house by a woman known to the police as Mrs. Walter West. Arriving there as Mr. Singleton, he was set upon by two men. The police have no trace of the men or the woman.

MANSFIELD, THE GREATEST AMERICAN ACTOR, IS DEAD

side. There were present at the time of his death, his wife, his brother Felix, his young son Gibbs, and the physicians and nurse.

BEST FRIENDS WERE EXPECTING HIS DEATH

News of Mansfield's death has not been unexpected since his return from Europe a month or so ago. The noted actor broke down earlier in the summer and was suffering from tuberculosis, neurasthenia and a general mental and physical collapse.

When taken to England it was thought that he would regain his health and strength, but although attended by the best medical experts of Europe and surrounded by all that wealth could obtain he grew rapidly worse.

"Take me home to die," was his constant request of his wife.

The publicity of this statement was the first intimation that his condition was serious and it has been strenuously denied up to this time.

During his stay at Saranac Lake most pathetic stories were told of Mansfield's condition. There was every indication that the great mind was shattered. Day after day he demanded that the costumes he used in favorite plays be shown him and over these he would shed tears when he recovered sufficiently to understand his condition.

At times he failed to recognize any one but his faithful wife and with her discussed plans for another season's work and more often the future of the future of Mansfield, while lucid, recognized that tuberculosis had him in its grip and his time of life was limited.

GREATEST OF ACTORS.

Despite his eccentricities Mr. Mansfield was recognized as one of the greatest of American actors. His genius was always appreciated and his professional standing not marred by his peculiarities. Time and time again complaint was made by his leading ladies regarding his harsh treatment of them, but it was always along the line of what Mansfield insisted was the "best in the art."

He was probably one of the best stage managers and directors of play that ever graced an American stage. His hobby was completeness in detail, and a Mansfield performance was always complete in everything required in the way of costumes, stage settings and other matters.

One of his greatest peculiarities was censuring and prompting members of his company during a performance. One of his greatest eccentric feats was sprinkling the Madison Square Theater with cologne. The horse show was being held below and the "horse smell" annoyed him.

MANSFIELD, HIS WIFE AND HIS STRUGGLES

Richard Mansfield was born on the island of Heligoland, May 24, 1857. His mother was Madame Rudersdorf, a singer. He passed his early life in the United States, while his mother was filling her engagements here; then he went with her to London and attended school and studied for the East Indian civil service, but abandoned that idea for business, and not succeeding, tried both literature and art, with the same result.

His first public appearance was at a musical entertainment at St. George's Hall, London, he soon after obtained an engagement with a Gilbert and Sullivan traveling opera company to play small parts. He made a visit to America and appeared as Koko, in The Mikado, wherein he made a decided success.

FIRST RISE TO FAME.
He appeared in 1878 as Dromes in the comic opera of Les Manteaux Noirs, and when "A Parisian Romance" was produced at the Boston Museum in 1883, he showed of what artistic material he was made. His "Baron Chevalier" was a great creation. In 1886 he appeared as Prince Karl in the play of that name at the Madison Square Theater, New York. In "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" he achieved a marked success, and played acceptably in this in London in 1888. His later notable roles were Rev. Arthur Dimmesdale, in Joseph Hutton's dramatization of "The Scarlet Letter," Beau Brummel and Littlebit Titmouse, in "Ten Thousand a Year."

FAINTS AS HUSBAND'S

were in the room occupied by Ed Williamson and his wife.

Upon hearing Thompson's threats, Mrs. McGill rapped three times on the table. Her husband arose and cocking the revolver went to meet the intruder. McGill called to the man, who was much more powerful than he, to retreat. Thompson refused and at the same time called Mrs. McGill a fool.

McGill threw open the door and knocked over a dresser. This diverted Thompson's attention and at the same instant the gun discharged. Thompson fell to the floor without a sound. Dr. William J. Jackson was called and had the man removed to the Fabiola Hospital.

McGill made a fight for his freedom on the ground that he was defending his wife and that the pistol accidentally discharged. The witnesses, Ed Williamson and his wife, testified that they were present at the time and that it was to save his wife from bodily harm or death that McGill aimed himself and beat off the drunkard's assault.

It is said by those who saw McGill in court that he will never outlive a term in prison, for he is said to be a victim of consumption, and the confinement for the past three months has changed him to a weakened old man from the cheerful youth that was arrested immediately after the shooting. His young wife, for he is hardly over his twenties, is not a strong woman, and the stress of the trial and her husband's imprisonment has told plainly on her health.

IS ROBBED BY FOOTPADS

The robbers evidently overlooked the diamond ring, which he values at $200. Captain Colby has detailed two detectives on the case.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED.
Shortly before noon today, Policeman Sandman of the Harbor Police station, noticed two men acting suspiciously on lower Market street. They were going in and out of stores endeavoring to dispose of several pieces of jewelry. The policeman followed them for awhile and finally decided to take them into custody.

When searched a horseshoe pin with fourteen diamonds, closely corresponding to the pin taken from Morris Barron early this morning, was found on one of them. They had also eighty-four dollars between them, and as Barron lost about $100 this fact also looks suspicious. They gave the names of John Burton and William Gannon, pending further investigations. There seems to be no doubt that these are two of the three men who held up Barron this morning, and Officer Sandman is being congratulated over his capture.

TO HIDE UNDER HER PETTICOATS

Paying Teller Says He Proposed to Abscond With $79,000 Disguised as Woman.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Insisting under cross-examination that Laura Carter incited him to rob the Windsor Trust Company, former Paying Teller Chester E. Runyan was last night led to tell about his plans to flee the city disguised in women's clothing.

While hiding in the flat, 619 West One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, Runyan said he made overtures to the woman that he disguised himself in her clothes. He bleached his hair and went to have his mustache shaved off. His plan was to put on one of Laura Carter's black silk robes and other feminine apparel and so disguised leave the city with the $79,000 in cash. The woman, he said, threw cold water on the plan because she feared the money would be out of her reach. She began demanding an additional $10,000 under threats of betraying him to the police.

Mr. Goldfogle, counsel for Mrs. Carter, brought out that Runyan had spent less than twelve hours in the company of the woman when it came to his displaying the $79,000 to her. When counsel for the woman asked Runyan whether he did not think he ran a great risk displaying so much money to a woman he had met in the street, Runyan said: "I don't think that occurred to me."

ADmits HE LIED.
Asked as to his interviews with Police Inspector Thompson, Runyan said he told the inspector that he gave Mrs. Carter $10,000. Runyan admitted that in his statement to Vice-President Ford of the Windsor Trust Company after his arrest, he had departed from the truth.

In that statement Runyan said he gave Mrs. Carter $5000 and then $10,000, making $15,000 in all.

Runyan told how he placed the suit case containing $79,000 of the stolen money in a chiffonier in the flat up town, which had been engaged at her suggestion. Mr. Goldfogle then asked: "The woman made pretty nearly all the money in the flat up town, didn't she, Runyan?"

"Yes," he replied. "Did you get anybody's assurance of clemency in the event of your testifying against Mrs. Carter?"

"Why?"

"Because I am trying to right a wrong."

"What is your feeling toward Mrs. Carter?"

"I hear her no ill will."

FATE OF GLASS SOON TO BE WITH THE JURY

because I corroborated the testimony of the accomplice or to the facts of the murder, while the guilt of the one man rests solely on the words of the accomplice."

BRIBERY PROVED.
It was to all intents and purposes admitted by Coogan that the bribery had been proved. He took up the finer question of the far guilt must be proved against Glass.

"It is not enough," said Coogan, "that Mr. Glass signed a letter written by Lukens and abetted, and it must be proven that he did not believe in the crime."

Coogan then appealed to Juror Kerrigan as the head of a corporation. "If one of your clerks," he said, "should commit embezzlement of funds from some one else in furtherance of your business, would you feel that you should be held responsible for that act?"

Entering on the question of elimination of someone else being responsible for the bribery was ten thousand times as strong as that Louis Glass did it. "It would be an insult to President Felt's intelligence," he said, "to presume that he came out here when the profits of his company were being threatened by a rival in the field, and went away without doing anything."

WHY NOT PICKERELL.
"Why did Pickernell come here to meet Felt? Because he was at Salt Lake. What was he doing there? There was important business. A rival was threatening the 'phone company there. It was Pickernell who came here to represent the parent company. What's to hinder him from saying to Zimmer, 'Draw the checks and turn them over to Halsey.'"

"I'm not here to say that Mr. Pickernell or Mr. Scott or Mr. Zimmer is guilty of this offense. Now let's pass on to Mr. Scott. I don't want to say an unkind word. When he said he was not to enter on his duties until the books were examined, I thought it very singular. Wasn't it singular he remained here until the day after the vote was taken on this ordinance? Suppose Mr. Glass' name was on those tags, wouldn't Mr. Halsey get up here and holler? Wouldn't his name get red, wouldn't he shout 'Whose name went on those tags, Zimmer?' Scott couldn't draw checks then, but Zimmer could."

"If Glass had ordered those checks, wouldn't it have been his name? Isn't it plain why Zimmer's name was there?"

"SEEKING REPUTATION."
"To whom was this assignment of the Oakland franchise mentioned? To E. J. Zimmer. Did Glass ever talk to a superior? Is there a word to show that he ordered Halsey to pay money to them? That ought to convict on evidence of this kind. Gentlemen, don't, to carry out some answer the popular clamor, or to swell the achievements of some men seeking a reputation, don't consider the possibility here."

"Suppose," said Coogan, "I went into a saloon to take a drink and a boy should come in and buy a drink. I know that it is against the law. Am I guilty of that offense? Gentlemen, the evidence against the motive. Mr. Glass, at the age of 63 years, having risen to the head of his company, having been in the East, but to give him the presidency, but to not some other man in. What will it profit him to say himself liable to prosecution for a heinous crime? Consider where the motives rest, that shows any wrong."

In the beginning, after his death, Mr. Glass signed a letter written by Lukens and abetted, and it must be proven that he did not believe in the crime. "What is there in the Oakland transaction that shows any wrong?"

Remember, continued Mr. Coogan, "that an eastern company owns this corporation body and soul. Remember that they sent traveling auditors here to audit these accounts. Remember that not a dollar could get out of this treasury that they did not know about. It is preposterous money that did not belong to him and appropriate it to an infamous purpose. It is a belief which should be forlorn by him who guides the destinies of men."

It is shocking to your sense of propriety and right to have it suggested that Mr. Glass took to his bed, and that it was the only man who could have taken this money. Don't settle upon Glass the sins of this corporation. I don't represent the corporation. I am here to speak for my friend, Louis Glass. Remember that you go into the jury room with one of the ablest minds in the city. You have a right to demand of you, if you find yourselves doubtful, the law requires that you should not return a verdict of guilty."

PERSONAL APPEAL.
Mr. Coogan closed with a personal appeal to the jury. He asked any one of them who might entertain doubt to stand up even against eleven. He begged them, as they thought of being free to go back to their homes and friends, that they should also consider the future peace of their consciences, and send Mr. Glass back to his home and loved ones. Mr. Coogan concluded at 12:15 o'clock.

YOUNG HOBBES FINED.
George Iverson and Chris Rasmussen, two youthful hobbes, were arrested at the Sixteenth street depot last night after they had beaten their way in from Sacramento Railroad Officers Carlson swore to a complaint charging the boys with evading railroad fare and they pleaded guilty in the Police Court this morning.

Judge Foster fined them $10 each, with the alternative of five days in the city prison. They took the alternative.

CHINESE FORFEIT BAIL.
In a raid on a Chinese gambling house at 335 Eighth street last evening, thirty-seven Celestials were taken into custody. Sam Lee, the gamekeeper, deposited the trunks and $25 for himself. None of the gamblers appeared in the Police Court this morning, and the bail was ordered forfeited.

the club and was known as the "Flying Dutchman."

For four years Hearther resided with his brother Ernest on Union street. Yesterday afternoon, just four years ago, he became a cripple, his brother Alton to visit their father. The suggestion was made by the brother, because Alton did not take kindly to Ernest Hearther, who had been just four years that he had been a cripple.

SEARCH ALL NIGHT.
Last night Earl disappeared from the house. His absence was noted by his brother, the police noted, and a search was made for him. Through all the night continued, until the morning the search the lot at the southwest corner of Union street and Lincoln avenue.

In one pocket was found a handkerchief that had been thoroughly saturated with the deadly acid. On the left hand a deep burn.

The dead man was about thirty-four years of age and resided in Oakland many years. An inquest will be held.

LOCAL BUTCHERS ARE PREPARING FINE FLOAT

Arrangements to put a fine float in the Labor Day parade were made last night at the regular meeting of Butchers' Union, local No. 120, at their regular meeting. The organization voted $25 and individual members $25, the $50 to be used solely for decorating the float which will carry fancy dressed stock and poultry. Charles Haddon, of Vincent's market, holder of the blue ribbon as a fancy dresser, will do the float decorating. The local butchers expect this float to be the finest of its kind ever seen in this State.

The union adopted a motion that all markets open after 8 o'clock a. m. Labor Day will be "unfair," and a detriment to organized labor.

FRACTURES LEG UNDER ELECTRIC CAR WHEEL

Lawrence Johnson, a cook 61 years old and living at 105 Third street, tied to jump on a moving car at Eighth street and Broadway this morning, and fell under the wheels, sustaining a compound fracture of the left leg just above the ankle. According to witnesses Johnson slipped as he reached for the car. The front wheels of the car struck the leg before the man could bring the car to a standstill. The fracture was set by Dr. W. H. Irwin.

FOUR PERSONS ARE MISSING

Three Boys Mysteriously Remain Away From Homes and Carpenter Disappears.

A spirit of restlessness, perhaps a demon wanderer, is hovering about Oakland these days and luring many citizens away from home and friends. Just how it tempts them away and where it leads them are the mysteries. Unexplained, but the fact remains that each day the police are asked by anxious relatives to locate their missing ones.

Four persons were reported missing this morning.

$20 IN POCKET.
Willie Schmitt, the ten-year-old son of John Schmitt of 374 Wallworth avenue, left his home yesterday at noon and did not return last night. His worried parents reported the matter to the police last evening and they have been searching for him since. When Willie went away he had $20 in his pockets. He wore a white vest, green overalls and knickerbocker corduroy pants.

HAS ROMAN NOSE.
Mrs. Mary Alves has asked the assistance of the police in locating her son Manuel Cabell, aged 13, who disappeared from his home in Melrose several days ago and a loose-fitting hat in a long overcoat and a loose-fitting hat in a long overcoat and a loose-fitting hat in a long overcoat.

IN KNEE BREECHES.
Albert Lacaze, aged 13, bade his mother, Mrs. Geanina Lacaze, good bye at her home, 2047 Linden street, yesterday morning and started for school. Since then she has seen nothing of him. Albert is large for his age and is of a light complexion. When he went to school he wore a light gray suit, with knee breeches and a gray cap.

HAS LIGHT MOUSTACHE.
On Sunday morning George C. George, a carpenter, left his room at 552 Broadway at one of the city churches. He did not return that evening, but as he very frequently visits friends in San Francisco, his absence did not attract any particular attention. However, several days passed and George did not appear. His mother, E. J. Church, became alarmed and asked the police to look out for him. George is 30 years of age, and a member of the Masonic fraternity. He is six feet in height, with a fair skin, and wears a light moustache.

STUFFS TWO FINGERS IN CLOTHES WRINGER

Five-year-old Claude Perry nearly lost two fingers this morning in the rubber rollers of a clothes-wringer. He was trying to help his mother wash on the back porch of their home at 215 Fifth street when he stuffed the third and fourth fingers on the left hand in with the clothes. He gave the crank such a heavy turn that he crushed the ends of the tiny digits. His sister Mary, picked him up in her arms and ran all the way to the seeking hospital, where Dr. W. H. Irwin dressed Claude's hand.

GRAND JURORS TO HOLD UNTIL NOVEMBER ELECTION

Their Services May Be Needed Before the Spring Valley Company Job Is Finally Consummated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The term of the Grand Jury has again been extended, of course, to the decision of the Supreme Court in respect to the validity of the local inquisition which is now pending before the highest court in the State.

It is pointed out that the term of the incumbent Grand Jurors expired by operation of law on January 30, 1907, but by operation of the "big stick" the local inquisition has been continued in office since that time.

"BIG STICK."

At first it was continued from month to month because of work in the so-called graft cases that it claimed to have to do or rather that Heney, Burns, Spring Valley and Spreckels had for it to perform. It was carried over the primary election just to accommodate the prosecution and then it was stated by the "big stick" that this branch of the confederacy for disfranchising the municipal government would be allowed to remain in office until October 15, when it would be discharged by operation of an order from the leaders in civic righteousness and graft for Spring Valley bondholders.

GRAND JURY TO REMAIN.

Now the "big stick" has ordered that the Grand Jury remain in operation until after the general election in November next. The indications are that unless the Supreme Court intervenes the special reformers will continue their Grand Jury in office until after the Spring Valley grab of the taxpayers' money shall have been consummated.

The sessions of the Grand Jury held recently have been devoted in the main to drilling or attempting to drill witnesses for the Glass case now on trial before Superior Judge Lawlor. For a diversion Special Prosecutor Heney and Bill Burns, the private detective, caused

MAYOR TAYLOR IS NOT A NOVICE IN POLITICAL GAME

If He Runs for Office He Will Get the Support of Some of the Union Labor Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Mayor Taylor may have read Blackstone and Taylor may have read Blackstone, but he may be a novice in the political game. The blameless physician, and he may have dined with the muses Euterpe and Thalia and even other nymphs and divinities, but the limitations of the poet have not been reached in these alone by any means. The doctor is giving signs of great possibilities as a practical politician. To some citizens this field of development in the Mayor has come as a surprise. But others only wink wisely and say, "Just watch him. He is a bird."

This reference to "bird" brings almost ancient memories to some of the older residents of San Francisco. The "Mistake" section of the city was regarded as almost out of town. Occasionally there would be a chicken dispute out there and these quidnuncs are now trying to scandalize Taylor by alleging that he always sat close to the pit and was a remarkably good judge of birds.

PRACTICAL POLITICS.

That Mayor Taylor either has more than passing knowledge of practical politics or has an expert for adviser in that relation was made apparent by his appointment of Michael Casey to the presidency of the Board of Public Works. In that position Casey will have much to say about the disbursement of the $600,000 apportioned to that department for the next fiscal year. Under the guidance and advice of Taylor and the "big stick" Casey will have the employment of about 2000 men. It is expected that before the general election next November this army of employees will be hard at work, not only for the city, but for the election of Dr. Taylor for Mayor.

It seems a far cry but Dr. Taylor may receive the endorsement of a wing of the Labor Party for 3000 laboring men holding public jobs at good wages, and with plenty of leisure, may accomplish much in the way of converting fellow to public pliancy to similarly easy jobs at the public crib, to the view that the man having the crib, to the view that the man having the

THAT CLAIM.

The reformers did not go into any of the published allegations relative to a juror having received word from the District Attorney's office, through his business partner, that his claim against the city for lumber furnished and aggregating upwards of $30,000, was about to be allowed by the "big stick" Board of Supervisors. Nor was the conveying of the information to a grand juror that he had been awarded a contract by one of the prosecutors inquired into by the inquisition. These conditions were made possible by the order of Judge Lawlor that the trial jurors, while in custody of the Sheriff, might be allowed to receive and read their business mail.

First Conviction for Defrauding in Weight

Mrs. Panagiotis Kocoris, wife of the proprietor of a candy shop at the corner of Eighth and Washington streets, was fined $20 by Police Judge Franks this morning for defrauding a customer in weight. It is the first such conviction ever noted in this city.

Policeman O'Grady was the complaining witness. He testified that on August 22 he purchased what purported to be two pounds of candy from Mrs. Kocoris. When he weighed the candy after leaving the store he found that it was several ounces short of the stipulated weight and he decided to swear out a warrant for the woman's arrest.

Mrs. Kocoris is a Greek and does not speak English. Through an interpreter she said that if she had made a mistake it was unintentional, as she is not very familiar with scales. Kocoris was placed on the stand and said that he did not believe his wife would read the scale. He was roundly scored by Prosecuting Attorney Deoto for permitting her to wait on the counter and sell goods.

The complaint against Mrs. Kocoris is the first one of the kind that has ever been noted in the Oakland Police Courts, and was prosecuted under a State law. In the Eastern cities there are regularly appointed scale inspectors, who make frequent arrests of dealers for using scales and balances that are incorrect.

OFFICER RUESS VICTIM OF LAD HE BEFRIENDED

ROBS MAN WHO GAVE HIM HOME Boy Flees for 1683 Miles Before Cap- ture Results.

FRED PASKIL.

How long is the arm of the law? Just 1683 miles long, according to Fred Paskil, who can be as far as Albuquerque from Probation Officer Rueess of Oakland. Fred is wanted for grand larceny. He suddenly decamped from the home of Probation Officer Rueess on August 3, where he had been a guest since July 20, and took with him Mrs. Rueess' engagement ring, a bracelet valued for $100, and a $75 gold watch belonging to a guest.

The lad was arrested for "sleeping out" on July 20 and on July 23 was turned over to Probation Officer Rueess. Rueess took a fancy to Fred, who is just past 16 and very attractive in many ways. After buying the boy underwear, Rueess took him home for a hot bath and a good meal. He kept Fred till Fred found a position starting at low wages, with at Rueess' home as long as he played the gentleman's part. Fred did this to per- sistent for sixteen days, and grew more and more into the grace of the Rueess household.

One day Fred came home with a story that he had broken down, and that he was laid off till the next day afternoon. At about noon the following day Fred started off at about 4 in the afternoon Mrs. Rueess, wearing the watch and bracelet, and the guest notified.

Rueess at first took the matter in good part, and thought he had made a mistake. But the women could not be so pitiful, and the next day letters were sent by Rueess to the chiefs of police in sixteen western cities. By the second day Rueess had come to the conclusion that it would be bad for the probation work and for other boys for Fred to get away and tell his story for others to imitate him. So 200 postal cards describing the boy and offering at Rueess' own expense a $25 reward for arrest were sent broadcast over the western country.

The following day a small out plug tobacco box arrived by mail filled with yellow packing streamers from some freight car, and containing the stolen ring and the following note:

"Dear Mrs. Rueess: I suppose that by this time you have missed me, your ring, bracelet and watch. I am a pawnshop in the city of San Francisco, and I am Alameda car line. And look close and you will find your ring in here. Tell later that her watch will be returned to you. Tell Mrs. Rueess that if he tries to bring me back there will be something doing. Leave here for Salt Lake City tonight. Please forgive me, Fred."

Rueess recovered the bracelet that day at the pawnshop described in the pencil note.

CONFESSED THEFT.

Five days after Fred left Oakland, Chief of Police McMillin of Albuquerque, wrote to Rueess: "Fred Paskil here in jail. Arrested by Special Officer Mulvaney in Santa Fe service. Confessed to taking ring and bracelet, but not the watch."

Thirteen days after that Chief McMillin wrote again: "Paskil says he told watch to a brakeman at Needles, Cal., for $5 and a meal look."

Rueess says that any boy who behaved as well as Fred did while at his house has lots of good in him, and it obliged to live a regular life for a few years and give up jumping from town to town and associating with tramps, hobos, and vagabonds. For the boy's own good, therefore, he thinks it would be best for "the boy to go to the State School of Industry at Lone, to learn discipline and a trade."

Rueess has sworn off conducting a detention home at his residence. He says that only his interest in the boys and the lack of any proper detention home provided by the county has driven him to taking his own house. But the strain of probation work by day and detention home work by night is too much, and there will be no more detentions. Rueess for a long time at Rueess' table. But it is an axiom in probation, as in charity work, says Rueess, that a man fit for the work ever lets one fraud dupe him into turning sour on unfortunate folk in general. "I would never let one 'bad boy' in," he says, "or even a score of 'bad boys' sour me on the hundred other 'good boys'."

Deputy Sheriff Bert Brown started for Albuquerque on Monday with the proper requisition papers and will probably return to Oakland with Fred in custody some time next week. Fred has been held to answer in Justice Quinn's court.

SAYS MRS. MARTIN'S CHARGES ARE UNTRUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—In an action for $20,000 damages against the wife of Rigo, the spy violinist, begun by Mrs. John Martin, of Oakland, Cal., because of an alleged statement given out for publication by Mrs. Rigo, in which she said that to have said that Mrs. Martin had threatened her, Arthur Pullman, attorney for Mrs. Rigo, today filed a motion for the striking out of a large part of the charges as being scandalous. The action as it is filed is "Isabella J. Martin vs. Mrs. Catherine Rigo, formerly Princess de Chimay, nee Clara Ward, alias Miss Cammel, alias Mrs. Casper Emerson." Isabella J. Martin appears on the record as her own attorney.

The complaint tells of alleged conversations between the two women in the Harlem Casino, in which the plaintiff alleges that Mrs. Rigo made statements regarding her and her family.

Mrs. Rigo says she is 23 years old and does not appear any older. The Princess de Chimay, it is alleged, passed her twenty-third birthday several years ago. The Rigos are in Atlantic City.

STAATS WANTS TIME ON MILK ORDINANCE

BERKELEY, Aug. 30.—Owing to the fact that his lawyer is taken up each day in conducting the prosecution of a case now being tried in Police Judge Edgar's court, Town Attorney Staats did not have the much-talked-of milk ordinance ready to present to the trustees at an adjourned meeting held last night. The ordinance was to have come up last night for final discussion and passage, but, owing to the above stated fact Staats was granted further time to prepare the ordinance in question.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Gustave Andriano left his fruit stand at 4888 Eighth street this morning with good intentions of returning with a load of vegetables and produce. He took his wagon to several markets and the vehicle was soon stocked with goods. About this time a friend asked him to have a drink in the saloon at Washington and Drury streets. He left his wagon at the door and when he returned it was gone. He hurried to the harbor police station to report his loss, but up to noon no trace had been discovered.

SLAYS MAN WHO IS WITH WIFE

Longshoreman Finds Friend in Company With His Spouse
and Wields Ax.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 30.—Archie Mitchell, an Englishman, who for twenty years has followed longshore work, entirely on his own, was found last night, lying on the floor beside Mitchell's wife and another woman named Jennie Willey, the three being in a drunken stupor, seized a double-bitted axe and killed Nelson as his victim slept. Mitchell was also attacked by the injured man, but escaped with slight injuries to the right hand. The other slaying was captured by ex-Patrolman Harris. To avoid violence upon the part of the longshoremen in that part of the city, Harris hurried Mitchell to the county jail. Mitchell and Nelson had been drinking heavily of late.

Was Struck by Train.

Through reading in THE TRIBUNE last evening that an unknown young man lay between life and death on a cot at the Receiving hospital from the injuries he sustained by being struck by a locomotive at the foot of Twelfth street early yesterday morning, Mrs. Ella P. Pine found her son, George W. Smith, to escape was captured by ex-Patrolman Harris. To avoid violence upon the part of the longshoremen in that part of the city, Harris hurried Mitchell to the county jail. Mitchell and Nelson had been drinking heavily of late.

known to all his fellow teamsters as "The King" who had gone off in quest of work and did not return home.

Mrs. Pine, who lives at Vista street and Central avenue, Meirosa, first sent her husband, H. W. Pine to the hospital. He looked at the young man with his bandaged head and was uncertain whether or not it was his step-son. Mrs. Pine accompanied him to the hospital a second time and when she entered the room she too was at first dubious as to who lay there before her.

Upon close examination of the unconscious patient Mrs. Pine recognized her son, burst out in tears and knelt over the prostrate form.

Mrs. Pine says her son, who is thirty years old, went to find work early yesterday morning. He is a member of the World and belongs to the teamsters' union.

A RECORD BREAKER

It is said that the greatest quickest permanent advertising success on record is that of Casco Candy Cathartic, which has been persistently advertised in every newspaper for a ten years. In that time the sales of Casco Candy Cathartic have grown from nothing over one million boxes a month. A wonderful record is the result of a merit successfully made known. Two tried Casco Candy Cathartic as a direct result of advertising were pleased and recommended the article to their friends and its fame was spread to become universal.

from the apostles of modernism is the "Soul Kiss." This comes from Chicago, as you might expect, but from the metropolis of the modern world, and it may be that the modern people are just a bit in a hurry to get in touch. The kiss of contact, however, is lacking in the Soul Kiss. It is possible to send it through a telephone, or to donate it in a room without the knowledge of anyone in the house or without the presence of the kisser. It seems to me like drawing the long line. It may be all right. When I see the ice cream kiosk and the "Soul Kiss" I think we shall have a "Soul Kiss" as usual.

WHARF PLANS TO BE SHOWN

Western Pacific Must Submit Its Terminal Scheme and Fix Limit of Work.

The ordinance granting the Western Pacific Railway Company a franchise over a 1000-foot-wide strip across the water front, wharfing out privileges and a fair way beyond its wharf in common with all others, was again laid over by the judiciary committee of the City Council last night.

Chairman Ellsworth stated that the charter provided how such franchises must be let. The plan for wharves must be approved by the Board of Public Works, and the franchise must contain a time for beginning and for completing specified work. Ellsworth asked Attorney Charles E. Snook if the Western Pacific could now fix a time for completing its proposed wharves at its western terminal on the Oakland water front.

Mr. Snook thought it could. Councilman Burns—Does these buildings revert to the city of Oakland at expiration of the franchise?

Snook—To the State; the soil belongs to the State.

Ellsworth—We want a provision in the franchise ordinance showing when the work of proposed improvements will be completed, and a map showing the plans.

Snook—We can submit a plan and map to the Board of Public Works for approval, fix the ordinance as required, and then bring the whole thing to the City Council.

Ellsworth—That's the proper way. We will lay this ordinance over until the next meeting of the committee to await your action in the matter as stated.

CLEVER PLAY AT MACDONOUGH

"In the Bishop's Carriage," Channing Pollock's stage story of Miss Miriam Michelson's famous novel, which will be presented at the Macdonough Theater August 30, 31, and September 1, is destined to be more than a ripple in the season's dramatic events. "In the Bishop's Carriage" serves adequately for the purpose of providing entertainment for those who like strong, natural plays, played by good actors with plenty of heart interest, and the phantom of a psychological problem. It is a variant of the Leah Kleschna and Raffles themes, with much virtue in construction, and any quantity of brightness of dialogue and tenderness of situation. "The Man of the Hour" will be the attraction at the Macdonough all next week.

WHARF RENTAL IS REDUCED 25 PER CENT

After an extended discussion of wharf charges and business done at the city wharf, the wharves and water front committee of the City Council last night decided to recommend that the Piper-Aden-Goodall Company's monthly rental be reduced from $200 to $150. It was regretted by the committee that this step seemed made necessary in justice to this company because an opposite company had been granted a reduction from $100 to $50 a month. It was stated that when business revives the city wharfing will notify the council and wharf rents will be increased.

Pleasant Baths. First-class Turkish and Hammam baths. Finest service on the coast; experienced attendants; also swimming tank for ladies and gentlemen. Take Piedmont car.

FITZGERALD TO BE IN CHARGE

Pending the will contests instituted by the sisters of the late Dr. J. M. Young of Alameda, Attorney R. M. Fitzgerald will act as special administrator of the estate. He was named in the will to act as such, and yesterday afternoon Judge Harrie granted him the authority.

The second contest was filed late yesterday by Mrs. Sarah J. Hawkins, who makes similar allegations of undue influence as was charged by her sister. Mrs. Lottie Pool, a few days ago when she sought to have the probating of the alleged last will set aside. Mrs. Hawkins also charges her brother of taking advantage of the physician's weakened mental condition and inducing him to write a testament which he did not fully comprehend. The estate consists of Alameda realty valued at about $15,000.

NEW WRITING GIVES SPEED

Kansas Discards Vertical Style for System Satisfactory to Business.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 30.—The State of Kansas, through its text book commission, has officially decreed that the system of vertical handwriting, in use for the last ten years, shall be discarded in the schools. In its place a new system—the Outlook—which is a compromise between the vertical and the old Spencerian system of writing—is to be taught the children.

Throughout the state, the city and county superintendents of schools are preparing to inaugurate the new system, while booksellers are shipping away their supplies of old copy books and laying in stocks of new ones for the rush that is to come with the opening of the public schools in the coming autumn.

BIG UNDERTAKING. "It is a big undertaking to attempt to supply all of the school children in Kansas, old enough to write, with writing books," a west side dealer said last night.

"In our own city about 10,000 of the school children are to be supplied."

"But why is the change in writing systems necessary?" was asked of Professor M. E. Pearson, superintendent of the west side schools. "The business world is demanding something better and speedier than either the vertical or the Spencerian slant," was the reply. "We discarded the Spencerian slant ten years ago and adopted the vertical. Now after ten years the business men are objecting to the vertical because of its lack of speed and also because it does not permit individuality. The demand is that writing shall be done with a firm, uniform line, with neither shading or flourish."

ALL SPEED. The medium slant that has been adopted has all of the essential qualities of the vertical and yet permits of a side stroke that allows speed in writing. It is more legible than the vertical and is more pleasing to the eye. Yes, the movement started with the business men. Teachers preferred the vertical because it was more easily taught, and pupils could do legible writing. But for practical use it failed to meet the requirements. There are four or five systems of medium slant writing. The text book commission selected the Outlook, as the best system for Kansas boys and girls to learn. The slant of the new system is 22 1/2 degrees.

FOR EXCLUSION OF RUNNERS

Southern Pacific Wants to Hold Back Hackmen and Others at Its Depots.

"The Southern Pacific Company has had a great deal of trouble with hackmen, both at the street station and West Oakland pier. Attorney Phil M. Walsh informed the city council judiciary committee that he had presented an ordinance prohibiting hackmen, hotel runners, etc., from standing or soliciting business between any railroad station and its tracks, unless specially permitted to do so by the committee.

Chairman Elsworth asked Walsh if he was familiar with the San Francisco ordinance on the same subject, and Walsh said he had not consulted it. He provided a certain number of feet of space on which hotel runners and hackmen shall not stand, said Elsworth. This ordinance is more sweeping and might permit the Southern Pacific to give a monopoly to somebody to the public's disadvantage.

Attorney Walsh promised to amend the ordinance to meet the committee's wishes.

An ordinance fixing the maximum rates for hire for hackmen and automobiles let for hire by the city was last night recommended for passage by the city council judiciary committee. Its terms have been published.

VEVA WHALEN STILL LEADS

Miss Ruth Schlueter Steps Into Second Place and Others Make Gains.

The contest for queen of the Alameda County Exposition and Carnival has now begun in earnest and the end of the third day's voting leaves Miss Veva Whalen still in the lead by a good margin. Miss Ruth Schlueter has taken second place from Miss Florence Jordan, but both Miss Jordan and Miss Kate Cuneo have made very considerable gains.

Evidently the friends of the young ladies have taken an interest in the race. The vote seems to indicate as much. If this is the case some close running may be expected. Fifty votes at the end of the first day's voting for Miss Mabel Caplan means that the supporters of the other girls will have to look out. A few more such deposits of votes will place Miss Caplan up toward the head of the list.

Following is the vote as it is announced at carnival headquarters this morning:

Miss Veva Whalen 316
Miss Ruth Schlueter 251
Miss Florence Jordan 202
Miss Kate Cuneo 101
Miss Mabel Caplan 51
Miss Grissell Kingsland 3
Miss De Brown 1
Miss Della Fischer 1

OPENING CEREMONIES.
Under the experienced direction of Dave McLaughlin the program for the opening ceremonies will be prepared in these ceremonies, which it is intended shall be unusually elaborate, the crowning of the queen will be the central attraction. The queen will be attended by her eight ladies, all of whom will be the girls elected by coupon ballot in the different communities of the county. The queen and each lady of her court will be presented with a beautiful and costly gift. All the young ladies will be elegantly gowned at the expense of the executive committee of the carnival.

The contest is bound to grow much warmer as the days pass. In each issue of THE TRIBUNE the voting coupon will appear until the contest closes on September 14. Not a coupon should be allowed to go to waste. Every one should be out and voted for the young lady whom you would like to see crowned queen of the carnival.

WOODMEN'S DAY.
At least 15,000 Woodmen will be in Alameda Park on September 26, if the hopes and plans of the Woodmen of the World are realized. That day will be the special occasion of woodmen's celebration. It will be Thursday of the first week's festivity, and all indications point to a rousing carnival all through the afternoon and evening. The Woodmen are going to bring in their neighbors from far and near, and give a demonstration of their strength and enthusiasm of their order before the vast festive crowd that will be drawn to the park by the hundreds of attractions.

The Woodmen's carnival committee met last night, with an enthusiastic attendance. Every man was ready to work with vim and all were in the spirit that means success. Alameda County Woodmen, Thomas M. Robinson of Wood Camp, No. 94, was elected chairman of the committee was thus regularly organized and that it might be more effective in many instances the more readily to operate with the sub-committees of the Nineteen Sub-Committees.

Already nineteen camps have named sub-committees to assist the general committee. These camps are as follows: Spruce Camp, No. 132, of Alameda, Encinita Camp, No. 137, of Berkeley, Elm Camp, No. 381, of Elmhurst, Fruitvale Camp, No. 341, of Fruitvale, Cypress Camp, No. 346, of Mt. Eden, Oakland Camp, No. 102, of Oakland, Forest Camp, No. 107, of Oakland, Bay Tree Camp, No. 640, of Oakland, Sycamore Camp, No. 182, of Pleasanton, Log Cabin Camp, No. 637, of Richmond, California Camp, No. 634, of San Francisco, Applewood Camp, No. 634, of San Francisco, Cherry Camp, No. 184, of San Jose, Cedar Camp, No. 142, of West Berkeley, Cerrito Camp, No. 742, of West Berkeley.

Mr. Robinson of the general committee having in charge preparations for the order's participation in the big carnival on September 27, and Friday of the first week. A meeting of the committee of this organization has been called for tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, at the headquarters of the order, 1000 Broadway.

And none the less active are the knights of Pythias, who will have charge of the carnival on September 27, and Friday of the first week. A meeting of the committee of this organization has been called for tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, at the headquarters of the order, 1000 Broadway.

The knights have made application to Director-General Miller and the executive committee of the University of the twelve-admission booklet. The members that they expect to sell tickets sufficient to number 1000. The San Francisco lodge of the order has offered by the local knights of Pythias committee for the first appearing and disciplined drill team which will take part in the competitive maneuvers to be executed on the evening of September 27.

ALL AT WORK.
Barely engaged at this time selling admission booklets and preparing for the carnival, aside from the large fraternal organizations, the Church of Christ, the Episcopal Church of Berkeley, the Associated Builders and Trades of the City of Oakland, the Good Cause Club of Alameda, Women's Guild of St. John's Church, League of the Cross, United Associated Students of the University of California, and many lodges acting individually and independently of their parent body in this work.

Not many more exhibits called at the headquarters of the carnival and carnival yesterday and selected the skaters will be all assigned in another week if the demand for space is kept up.

FALLS WITH BALLOON 2000 FEET; SURVIVES

BARNSTABLE, Mass., Aug. 30.—Almost 5000 persons at the annual county fair saw Professor Maloney, a balloonist, drop 2000 feet to earth, strike on the top of a fence post and escape probably unscathed. Maloney made his descent as usual late yesterday afternoon, and Governor Guild was among those who rushed to his rescue in an automobile. As visitors at the fair grounds gazed upward they saw the balloonist's attempts to cut his past were fruitless.

For fully two miles Maloney floated along. The gas was rapidly leaking from the big bag above him, and he prepared for the long drop. Maloney and the balloon came earthward rapidly. As he heard the crowd the canvas fell around the body of the aeronaut and prevented him from seeing where he was. He struck on the top of a big cedar post. Luckily he did not fall squarely, but struck in a half standing position. His back was terribly torn and his left arm badly broken. Physicians say he will doubtless recover, as he is not injured internally.

Hale's, in Oakland, Announce a Grand Fall Opening of Millinery and Suit Tomorrow

THE department is filled to overflowing with unusually beautiful Fall Hats. Every one carries in its makeup some new millinery conception—some novel or striking feature. The broad brim idea has been delightfully carried out. There could be no more profitable nor pleasurable way of spending a Saturday than to come to Hale's tomorrow and see the gorgeous array of Fall Millinery.

The New Fall Colorings

THIS Fall is a "color season"—the new shades are tremendously popular, they are so bright and in such rich tints. The colorings most in vogue are Faon or Peacock blue, Vieux or old blue, Bordeaux or wine color, Eveque or plum shade. These are meeting with most promising reception in Parisian circles. Leather color or cinnamon brown, plum and navy are favored by many fashion arbiters.

The New Fall Shapes

THESE are large and stunning. Broad brims over the face, in exaggerated mushroom style carry out the "big" effect. Wide ribbon bows, buckles and large plumes, drooping over the back in graceful folds, or in a shower of scintillating colored points lend themselves to the general effect. The large drooping brims are immensely popular. Also you will find many high crowns. These large hats necessitate the wearing of the hair full or fancifully dressed—the wave pompadours and little French shoulder curls are the correct thing to set the hat off properly.

Extended Display of 2000 Beautiful New Fall Hats. Striking effects—Exclusive Designs.

About Parisian Hats and Their Makers

THESE hats from these makers embody in their every curve, grace and beauty; and are themselves the cream of originality. The hats are in perfect taste, yet strikingly beautiful and full of new color schemes. Those in black and white are very striking. Consider, for instance, the quiet beauty of a large black mushroom, trimmed with wide black ribbons and a marabout pompon in white. We have Hats from Reboux, Milot, Georgette, Pouyenne and others equally noted. The prices are low—unusually so for Imported Hats. Handsome Parisian models range in price from $15, $20, $25, $30 and $35 on.

Original, Tasteful Hats from Hale's Workrooms

$1.95, $2.25, $2.50, $3.25 and $3.50. ALL made along the new Fall lines—the fashionable colorings, shapes and trimmings, all faithfully copied from the Parisian and Eastern styles. They form an alluring assortment; hats of fine quality felt, tastefully trimmed with silks, velvets, wings, fancy feathers and new and nobby ornaments; favored shades of brown, navy, gray, myrtle, green and leather color, including black.

The New Fall Trimmings

THESE are most effective and novel. There are dainty embroideries, handsome pins, bright feather novelties and brilliant foliage. Jeweled pins and ornaments such as rhinestone buckles have a conspicuous place in the decoration of hats. Japanese novelties and cut steel effects also are most ornamental.

Our assortment of plumage is attractive and fascinating. There are fancy feathers, black plume boa ends, marabout novelties, cascade pompons, aigrettes and coque wings and wide Alsatian bows of ribbon effectively placed. Fancy feathers are more in demand than ever—in some cases the entire crowns being covered with them. Ostrich feathers are also used on many hats.

Some hats are trimmed with novelty bands having the effect of embroidered Japanese silk with ornaments to match. Orchids, velvet foliage and shaded roses form a principal part of trimmings. Our brief space prevents a description of the many others awaiting your inspection.

One Thousand New Fall Hats at $4.75, $5.50 and $6.50. You should see them. A goodly variety of colors and shapes—made of fine velvets and handsomely trimmed with feathers, aigrettes, wings, breasts, and trailing coques. Plenty of black hats as well as brown, plum, navy, green, and Bordeaux.

Handsome New Fall Suits Attractively Priced

Beautiful New Models in the Latest Fashion

STYLISH and new models direct from the Eastern makers—the very newest creations that Fashion has given us. All the new Fall styles—new shadings and materials. There is not room in the department for all the new styles. The windows are filled with them.

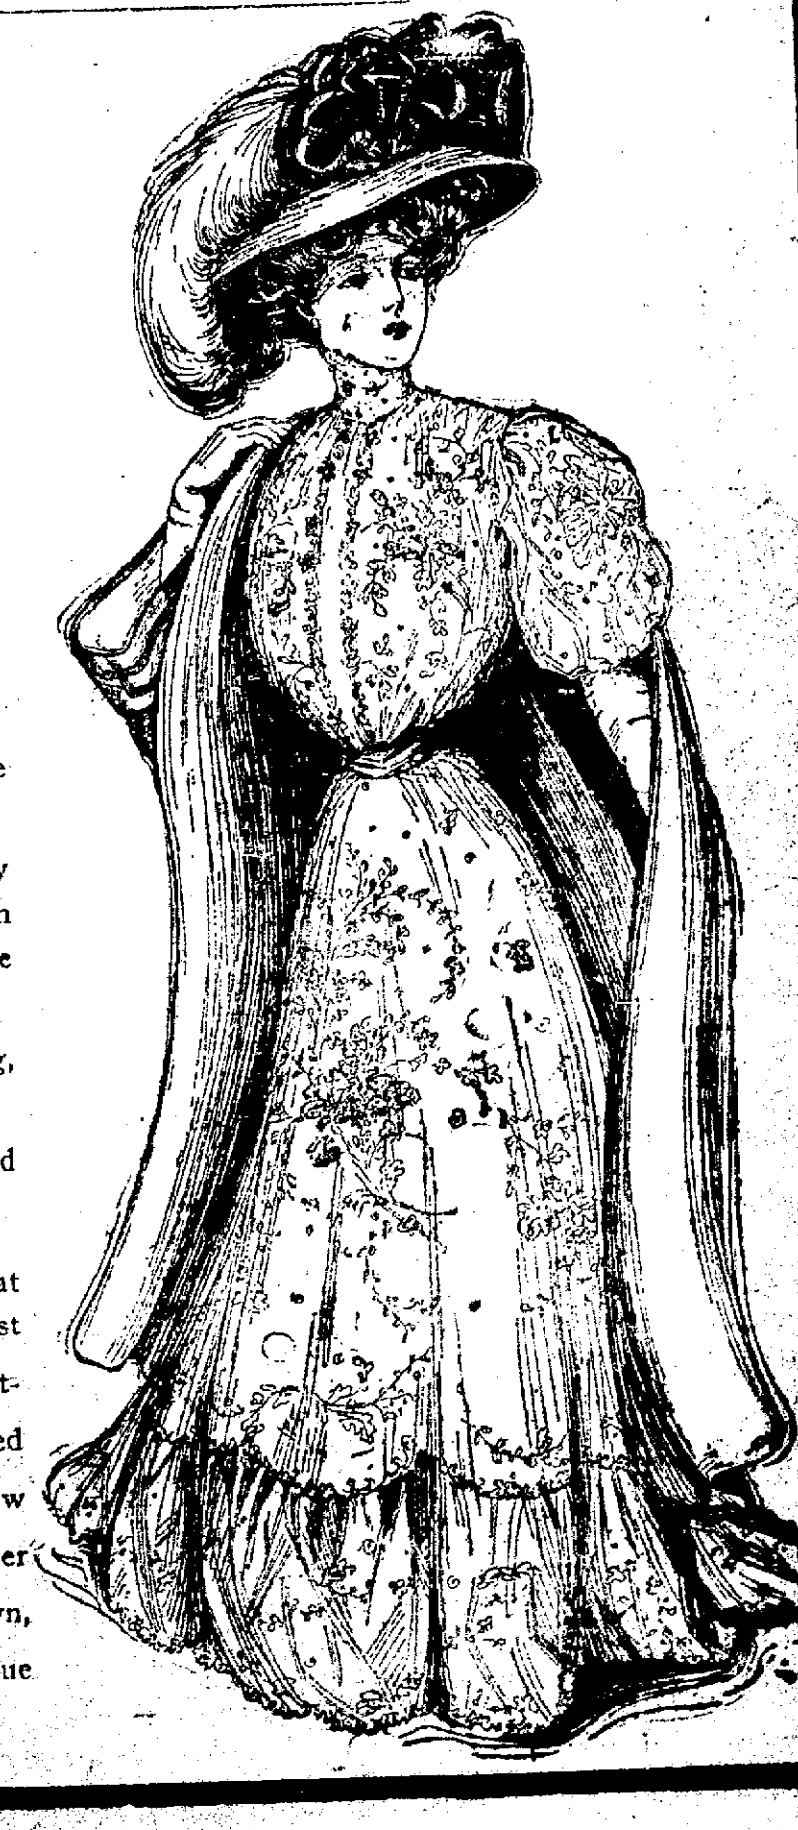

You'll find them attractively displayed—on the second floor—all the becoming models that will be worn this season. Select your Fall suit now and enjoy wearing it through the early part of the season. The values are exceptionally good—the prices surprisingly low.

The most interesting thing about the Fall and Autumn suits is their graceful flowing lines and the length of the cutaway coats. These coats are along mannish lines, achieving a very trim and smart effect. Lesser features are the bands on jacket, the velvet collars of a shade with the material, and smartly stitched bands down the coat front. The skirts are beautifully plaited.

Long coat effects are mostly favored. Prince Chap styles are much in demand and will be extensively worn. These are long, with fitted backs and straight fronts. A number of this season's models are tight-fitting cutaways.

In regard to colorings, the various shades of brown are favored, although garnet, blue, green, gray, various mixtures and black will be worn.

A Cataract of New Goods Keeps Tumbling Into Kahns'—The Always Busy Store

New Silk Beauties

Our silk counters are never barren of interest. Just now they fairly blaze with beauty—and economy. We believe that women come here expecting handsomer silks and better values than they can find elsewhere. That's right. We want that impression to prevail even more widely. We want it strengthened into positive conviction. And the following offering is just one more evidence of our efforts in this direction.

FANCY LOUISINE SILKS, in entirely new plaid effects and in a wide range of new color combinations for Autumn—19 inches wide. Just the silks you'll be glad to get later at their regular price. And it isn't a bit too early to provide for the gowns and waists you know you'll need by-and-by. The very substantial saving may only be realized by prompt purchasers. Per yard 75c

New Sorosis Shoes

The natty new Fall styles in Sorosis Shoes and Oxfords are now ready for you to see, admire and buy. It represents the highest possibilities of fine leather and best workmanship and is the favorite footwear of women who follow fashion, love beauty, value comfort and appreciate economy.

THE house is usually neglected through the summer—and garments get rough vacation usage, and suffer untold hardships at vacation laundries. People come home the latter part of August and find things generally out of sorts. Rugs look faded and jaded—curtains are dingy—a new dinner set is needed—the kitchen utensils need to be renewed—the table linen must be replenished—wearing apparel looks shabby—shoes are scuffed and worn—and so the story might be continued. This word is to tell you that Kahns' Big Department Store is ready to supply ALL these things, and at the fairest kind of prices.

Midsummer Emptiness Is Over Here

Every Department is Filling Up With the Newest and Best for the New Season

Colors are leather, navy green and black.

Prices? Why refer to them at all? They are Kahn prices—that means lowest prices.

Cloak and Suit Department in Its New Autumn Dress

THERE'S a touch of early Autumn in the air—the leaves will soon change their color and begin to flutter. It isn't a bit too early to think of the new wardrobe. Come tomorrow and take the first peep at Fashion's secrets for the new season. The showing is not as large as you will find here later, to be sure. But it is very complete for so early a gathering, and the display is distinctively free from the commonplace. You are just as welcome to look as you are to buy.

Stunning Autumn Suits

The new suits make a proud display, early as it is. Styles are radically different from those of last season—richer and more beautiful. Manufacturers grow bolder and more aggressive with every new season. And the bolder the hand the more genius it displays. Some of the suits are semi-fitting—some are tight fitting. Some have the long-skirted Cutaway Coats that are so becoming to most women—some have the jaunty Prince

Chap Jackets—some have Coats of various lengths, ranging from 27 to 52 inches. Some are richly plain—some are effectively trimmed. You'll find our prices very reasonable. We charge only for value—not for exclusiveness, novelty or beauty.

Fall Suits

$15 TO $115

We have Stylish Suits at $15—Magnificent Ones at $115—and something from fine to elegant at every price between these two extremes.

New Paris Costumes

You'll enjoy seeing these exquisite strangers from Paris—there is such wonderful fascination to womanhood the world over in the styles that emanate from that famous old city. We'll not attempt to tell you of their beauty—we lack the ability to render them properly. All we can say is that they are made with that loving care which differentiates art from commerce—that one costume is of all-over braided lace, with beautiful raised figures—that another is of daintily trimmed blue chiffon, over white silk—that still another is of pure white silk chiffon, richly embellished with hand-embroidered roses. You must come and let your eyes tell you of the others and fill in the details. Costumes of equal elegance usually sell at $100 to $235. But we bought them more to give tone to the department than for profit, and have marked them at prices ranging from.....

$65 to $85

Fur Coats and Neck Furs

Our Fur Department keeps steadily forging ahead. We are continually learning—bettering—improving. Last year's stock was a wonderfully attractive one. This year's collection is larger—handsomer—grander.

We have beautiful Coats and Jackets in every fur that Dame Fashion sanctions—London Dyed Sealskin, Baltic Seal, Sable, Caracul, Persian Lamb, Astrakhan, River Mink, Natural Squirrel and Sable Squirrel. And our prices—which range from $25 to $125 —are invariably lower than those asked elsewhere for garments of equal quality.

In Neck Furs we have everything new that is stylish and practical—the variety is almost unending. Every fashionable fur is represented—Real Mink, Russian Sable, Genuine Ermine, American Ermine, Caracul, Broadtail, Persian Lamb, Japanese Mink, River Mink, Brook Mink, Blue Wolf, Blue Fox, Blue Opossum, Sable and Isabella Opossum, Marten, Black Lynx, Natural Squirrel, Sable Squirrel and Coney. Lowest prices, of course—98c to $150.

Neck Furs 98c TO $150

Fur Coats $25 TO $125

Caracul Plush Jackets

Destined to be the most stylish Jackets of the season. The material from which they are made so closely resembles the very expensive Broadtail Fur that even an expert might be deceived thirty feet away. They come in the newest Blouse, Pony, Tight-Fitting, Military, Three-Quarter and Full Length effects, and are splendidly made and richly lined. We bought early—before the advance—and our prices are fully twenty-five per cent lower than our tardy competitors are compelled to charge. $15 to $50

The Men's Store

If you've nothing "on" for tomorrow drop in and let us show you the many new things in this department. You'll want to buy the minute you clap your eyes on them. Our prices are not barriers. We know how to gather goods in the most economical way—and one of the first mercantile lessons we learned was the wisdom of saving money for our customers.

GILLETT CALLS DOWN PRESIDENT WHEELER GOVERNOR AND CHAIRMAN OF REGENTS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

PLAN FOR PUBLIC MUSEUM PROBABLE OF REALIZATION

Frank M. Smith Heads Necessary Fund With $1000, to Acquire Valuable Collection That Is Offered.

Oakland is very likely to have an addition made to her numerous attractions in the way of a public museum. The movement to acquire a valuable ethnological collection was started yesterday by a meeting in the Mayor's office at the city hall. Some months ago a former Oakland resident, who recently returned from the islands of the South Pacific ocean, called on Mayor Mott and suggested the idea of acquiring a collection that he had been gathering for many years.

The collection might probably be classified into three groups, namely, ethnological, onchological and geological, the former, however, comprising the greater part. The collection has been examined by a committee selected by the Mayor and its report is very favorable, and the members strongly advise that the collection be secured for the city of Oakland.

OFFER SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Inasmuch as the city government does not have the power to appropriate money for this purpose, the necessary funds, namely, $10,000, will have to be provided by popular donation. The subscription list has already been headed by F. M. Smith, who offers $1000. The gathering held yesterday afternoon concluded to form a general committee which would take charge of the matter at once and proceed to secure the funds.

On the park lands soon to be taken over by the city are several large houses, notable among these being the Captain Wright house on Oak street. While this is an old mansion, it is in good preservation and order, and for the present it is proposed to install this collection there for the benefit of the public. It will be easy of access and will, no doubt, be appreciated by the people as an interesting attraction to the city.

RARE OPPORTUNITY.

Some time ago there was purchased by popular subscription the famous Bryant collection of birds, which has been offered to the city as soon as a proper place could be provided. This will be added to the other collection, and all together will make a very creditable start in the way of a public museum. This is a very rare opportunity to secure a collection of this character, and it should not be missed.

The meeting held yesterday in the Mayor's office voted that the Mayor should appoint a committee to immediately take the matter in charge and the announcement of the committee will be made in a few days, when the work of securing the funds will be commenced. Those experts who have seen this collection pronounce it to be rare, genuine and very interesting. It is of such extent as to make a very attractive exhibit from the beginning.

The museum is an excellent thing and every public-spirited citizen should take hold and make it a success. In the end it will be a big thing for the city.

SECRETARY METCALF'S SON ELOPES AND WEDS WIDOW

MR. AND MRS. W. H. METCALF SECRETLY MARRIED.

FORGIVENESS IS ASSURED Marriage Occurs at San Rafael in Secret.

Hastening to San Rafael to wed the woman of his choice, William Howard Metcalf was secretly married to Mrs. Wilda Bevans, a fascinating widow, whom the youngest son of Secretary of the Navy Metcalf wooed and won.

The youth who had deserted the paternal fireside to take a wife, did not inform his parents of his marriage until last Sunday.

The family did not know that young Metcalf was to take a bride on August 20, although his parents were aware that he was courting Mrs. Bevans.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. Ernest Bradley, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. There were no witnesses at the ceremony.

DECIDE TO WED.

The courtship which ended in the elopement of young Metcalf and the widow a week ago Tuesday had its beginning but a few months since. Metcalf met her in a casual way. She was twenty-five and pretty. She was located at 525 Eighth street. An evening party at the house of a friend of the couple, then came the decision to marry. Their plans were carefully laid.

In the meantime Secretary of the Navy Metcalf and his wife had arrived from Washington. A trip through the northern part of the State, in Washington and through Oregon seemed necessary to cast off the swelter of the Washington, D. C. climate. It was while they were still away on their vacation that their youngest son and Mrs. Bevans conceived the plan of a quiet wedding at San Rafael.

SURE TO FORGIVE.

The couple were found at their apartment on the Richmond street. Mrs. W. H. Metcalf was the first to speak.

"I am married and I was married at San Rafael and I was married at San Rafael."

Wants Thomas Named for Postmaster---C. Merrill Strongly Endorses the Administration of George Schmidt.

Governor James N. Gillett has taken a hand in the battle over the Berkeley postoffice fight. As governor and as president of the Board of Regents of the State University he has sent a telegram to President Roosevelt strongly endorsing Thomas and backing Congressman Knowland up to the limit. This telegram will undoubtedly have great weight with the president.

KNOWLAND SUPPORTED.

Knowland is being showered with endorsements from all over the State. Dr. Wheeler's enemies, and he has many, have taken up the battle cry against him trying to pull the State University into politics. It is still a royal battle with President Roosevelt as referee.

DEMOCRATS ON DECK.

Francis J. Heney and J. J. Dwyer, two well known Democrats, have endorsed Merrill for postmaster. The Democrats are now getting into a purely Republican contest.

Here is the line-up:

FOR CLARENCE MERRILL—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Francis J. Heney, J. J. Dwyer, Professor A. C. Miller (department economics, U. C.), A. W. Foster, president Northwestern Pacific Railway.

FOR CHARLES E. THOMAS—Governor Gillett, U. S. Senator George C. Perkins, U. S. Senator Frank Flint, Congressman J. R. Knowland, Superior Judges of Alameda County, All the Congressmen of California.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS?

Judge Waste of the Superior Court, a resident of Berkeley and a friend of President Wheeler, has written this letter:

"OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, AUGUST 23rd, 1907.

"HON. JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND, MEMBER OF CONGRESS, OAKLAND.

beat the elder to the altar was not even whispered in social circles.

Mrs. William Howard Metcalf is the mother of a five-year-old daughter, Alice. Her former husband had been dead for several years. The bride's parents are well-to-do residents of San Anselmo. J. H. Bramer formerly conducted a large furniture business in this city. He has retired for some time, however.

KILLED BY LIVE WIRE.

Mrs. William Howard Metcalf's husband met a tragic death in San Francisco four years ago. He had patented an electrical appliance. While explaining the workings of his invention to his attorney and a representative of a local power company, whose headquarters was on Eighth street, below Mission, Bevans accidentally touched a live wire, which formed a short circuit, and dropped to the floor dead. He thought that the power company was infringing on his patent and was trying to explain the details when the fatal accident occurred.

While the Secretary of the Navy and his wife have not reconciled themselves to the school of their youngest son, the matter and his bride are not worrying. They are comfortably housed in their new home.

THE DICTATOR

It was a noble Mentor, and he once conceived the notion

- That in the ring of Politics a crown of laurels lay,
- And dreamed of power to set the party "talent" in commotion
- By posing as Dictator in the city by the bay.
- Quoth he, "My clever tactics and my shrewd manipulation
- Have won from Alma Mater, so why not from Uncle Sam?
- Besides, 'tis time to show the folks of county, state and nation
- How fit and apt a general in the ring I really am!"

He entered the arena armed with Doctorate of Letters—

- (What influence more potent in the handling of the mail?)
- He plighted his opponents in the dust, and bound in fetters;
- He saw the party leaders at his blows triumphant quail.
- Alas! his vaunted prowess took a fall, instead of rising;
- The Senatorial upper-cuts and well-aimed Congress books
- That made him take the count, were to his plans a check surprising—
- He quickly learned a lesson that is not contained in books!

Go back unto the campus, noble Sage, with greater prudence!

- Of politics the science you must cure your notions wrong;
- And there, in calm contentment, pray matriculate your students,
- And leave the registry of mail to whom it may belong!
- And lastly, heed the axiom, learned Sage, that, in conniving,
- Twixt plan and execution lingers always many a slip,
- And that a clever Congressman who coach-and-four is driving
- Will make the fractious wheelers heed the crack of party whip!

Dressler, Professor Irving Stringham, B. B. Lewis, C. A. Sherman, C. C. Jester.

The letter referred to above is as follows:

"OFFICE OF CLARENCE S. MERRILL, TOWN CLERK, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY, CAL., NOV. 23, 1904.

"HON. JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND, M. C., ALAMEDA, CALIFORNIA, DEAR SIR: KINDLY ALLOW ME THE PRIVILEGE OF SAYING A WORD IN FAVOR OF MR. GEORGE SCHMIDT, PRESENT POSTMASTER OF BERKELEY, WHOSE TERM IS ABOUT TO EXPIRE.

"DURING HIS TENURE OF OFFICE, MR. SCHMIDT HAS GIVEN HIS CLOSE PERSONAL ATTENTION TO HIS DUTIES, AND HAS PERFORMED THEM IN A MANNER THAT HAS BEEN SATISFACTORY TO THE PATRONS OF THE OFFICE, IN EVERY WAY. THE EXPERIENCE NOW GAINED BY HIM, AND THE CLOSE PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO EVERY DETAIL OF THE OFFICE, SHOULD, I FEEL, ENTITLE HIM TO EARNEST CONSIDERATION FOR RE-APPOINTMENT.

"TRUSTING THAT MR. SCHMIDT MAY RECEIVE THE COURTESY OF YOUR SUPPORT IN HIS CANDIDACY FOR RE-APPOINTMENT, I REMAIN, 'VERY TRULY YOURS,

(Signed) "C. S. MERRILL."

The committee of Berkeley citizens called at Mr. Knowland's office this morning. Mr. Martin was spokesman. He and all of the members expressed the greatest confidence in Mr. Knowland.

Mr. Martin acted as spokesman, by relating what kind of management had been given in the Berkeley postoffice. Schmidt, he declared, had been a politician and the duties of the office had been neglected, the service was poor and went so far to charge almost criminal actions. They were tired of having politics in office. They wanted a man of pure motives and high character, a man like C. S. Merrill who would put politics aside and give an honest, business-like and economical administration in the office in question.

At that moment, Mr. Knowland reached for his letter file and produced the letter of which a copy appears above, as to the appointment of a successor to Schmidt until he learned what action the department at Washington had taken. Mr. Knowland declared that the honesty of Mr. Schmidt had never been questioned by the postoffice department.

They all had a very frank and free discussion of the situation. There was no bitterness. Knowland was satisfied the delegation came in good faith and they parted as friends. In fact, the meeting devolved into a general love feast and the committee and Congressman Knowland found they were not far apart, both desiring the appointment of an efficient postmaster for Berkeley.

DR. WHEELER'S STATEMENT.

Dr. Wheeler also had something to say. In a statement prepared for the Call he dealt at length with the various phases of the question and repeated his objections to the practice of using the Berkeley postoffice as a political asset. His statement was as follows:

"This matter of the Berkeley postoffice is not a matter of pitting one candidate against another. It is a conflict between two widely distinct views of public service. The leading citizens of Berkeley are united in the feeling that their postoffice, which has been fearfully mismanaged and neglected in recent years, must not longer continue, as it were, a private possession of a small clique of professional politicians.

"I have never known Mr. Merrill very well. I have never had any prolonged conversations with him. I doubt if I had met him and spoken to him more than three or four times before this matter came up. He was called to my attention by the excellence of his administration of the town clerk's office, which I had heard about from various sources. Also, by the general reputation for probity and integrity which he unquestionably bears in the community. For the last year or two I have over and over again heard different citizens say that they wished they could get Merrill for postmaster; that he would be an ideal man. His father was for twelve years the Berkeley postmaster and much respected by every one. The son had experience of the office under his father and has served, also, I believe, for several years as clerk in another postoffice. His name, therefore, occurred naturally to men's minds as one already trained to the professional work of postoffice management.

MERELY DESIRES GOOD MAN.

"I do not care who in the postmaster in Berkeley so long as we have a man that pays attention to the business and gives us good collection and distribution of the mail. The University has the right to ask this. Its publications—those, for instance, of the Lick Observatory—the agricultural bulletins go out in large masses and must be promptly distributed. We had a case a while ago of a sack of agricultural bulletins of importance to the farmers left forgotten in a corner of the postoffice for between five and six months.

"Everybody in Berkeley knew that the proposed appointment of Thomas meant a simple continuance of the political use of the office. I shall be perfectly satisfied if his nomination is rejected and some good man, whoever he may be, put in his place. And I think that in expressing these sentiments I simply voice what is the universal and deeply felt sentiment of all the best citizens of Berkeley. It is a disgraceable thing for me to deal with, and I should not have taken part in the affair had I not deemed it my duty to do so."

PERKINS CONSULTED.

Dr. Wheeler called on Senator Perkins yesterday and tried to pull him down regarding his endorsement of Thomas. Senator Perkins treated the University of California president very kindly, but very firmly told him that he knew Thomas was a competent man, and that he would support Knowland to the finish.

BROWN AND WASTE.

Superior Judge William H. Waste and District Attorney Everett J. Brown gave out the following statement:

"We were shown an interview stated to have been made by President Wheeler regarding certain conversations over the telephone with us concerning the Berkeley postmaster. We communicated with President Wheeler this morning, and President Wheeler informed us that he had made no such statement as contained in the interview.

"We, therefore, both deem it proper that we should have nothing to say in connection with this matter."

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE ON ANNUAL OUTING

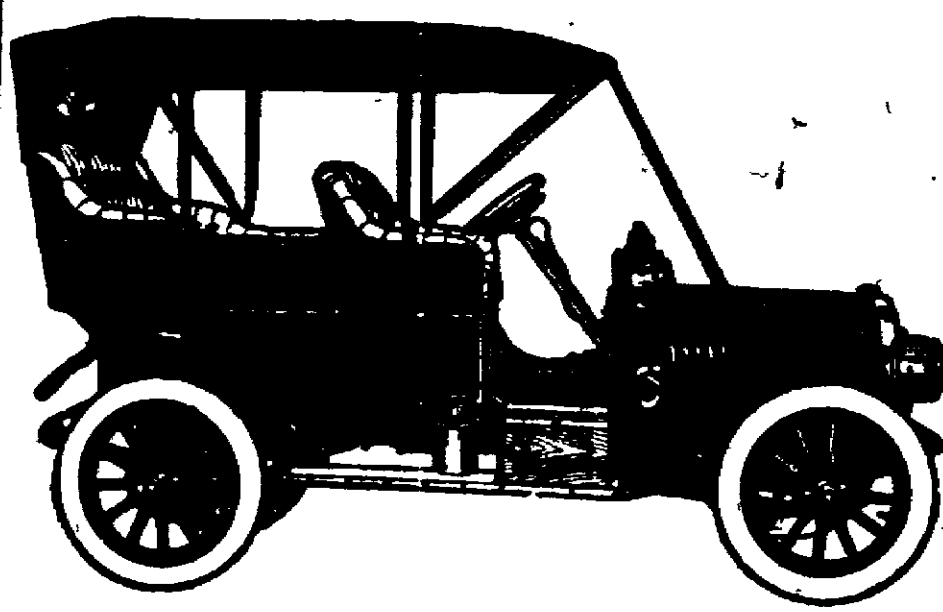

The Merchants' Exchange, through Harry G. Williams, president, and Wilber Walker, secretary, has issued invitations to the annual excursion of the exchange. This year the members and invited guests will have Past President Theo. Gier as host and Gier's Napa county vineyard as the place of meeting. The excursion will leave Sixteenth street station at 8:15 a. m. Sunday.

SCHOOLS NOT OPEN MONDAY LAUNDRIES MAY BE RESTRICTED

City Superintendent in Letter of Instructions to Teachers and Principals.

City Superintendent of Schools J. W. McClymonds has issued the following to principals and teachers of the Oakland school department:

On Thursday, September 5, there will be a meeting of the eighth grade B teachers of the Grammar schools, in conjunction with the teachers of English of the High school, to discuss the essentials of English. This meeting will be held at 3 p. m. in a basement room in the west wing of the Oakland High school building, opening of the court, Grove-street basement entrance. William M. Greenwell will preside.

No sessions of school will be held on Monday, September 2, nor on Monday, September 3, these days being legal holidays.

The superintendent of the Oakland Traction Company has called my attention to the fact that schoolboys are jumping off and on the cars before and after school. Many of these offenses occur while the pupils are on their way to and from school. Principals will take this matter up and use every endeavor possible to see that the evil is stopped. Children are entirely under the control of the principals from the time they leave home until they return.

The discipline of the schools and the safety of the pupils demand that this matter be controlled. Please give it your earnest attention.

City Attorney Directed to Draft Ordinance Excluding From Residence Districts.

In an attempt to exclude steam laundries from residence districts of Oakland, the city council's judicial committee ran against several legal snags last night. An ordinance, as proposed, also included machine shops and blacksmiths and carpenter shops and livery stables. Also that no building housing a steam boiler should be erected nearer than fifty feet from a property line.

City Attorney McElroy in an opinion expressed doubt as to the legality of excluding carpenter shops. He thought laundries could, under the police powers of the council, be confined to certain limits.

Attorney Puffer said the difficulty arose when an attempt is made to fix such limits.

Ellsworth urged that the main idea is to keep laundries out of residence districts.

This was what the city attorney wanted to know, and the ordinance was referred to him to be remodeled with that main purpose in view.

MRS. BRADFORD MAKES PLEA FOR FIRE HORSES

Editor TRIBUNE: I was filled with indignation when the following item under the caption "City Horses are Retired" appeared in your issue of September 1st.

"Old Joe" the chief of police that had been shot was filed.

The chief of police reported that the department saddle horse "Teddy" is unfit to perform the services required of him, and he recommended his condemnation and purchase of a new animal.

Condemning "Teddy" and ordering a new horse purchased was adopted.

JOE ASO INDICATED.

Cliv Veterinary Archibald's report that the horse "Joe," located at the Fifteenth-street patrol home unit, is unfit to perform his duties owing to old age and suggesting that he be condemned and disposed of.

The report of the chief of police that "Joe" had been shot were filed.

Now, let me tell you how they do those things down in the little city of Fresno.

The Chief James A. Ward with the co-operation of the City Trustees and every person in Fresno who can make a claim to having a heart or soul.

The faithful animals which have been used in the city's service out to pasture, at the city's expense, to rest and feed and kick their heels in freedom the balance of their lives.

They are not "condemned" and sold to slaughterhouses or to the city's penitentiary as they do in Fresno.

Let me humbly but publicly suggest that the Fresno themselves, and the humane society, and the humane citizens, intercede for these intelligent and noble animals. Let us insist that when they are "condemned" they be treated as a life of ease and rest, and treat them as friends and not as enemies.

STEINWAY AND OTHER PIANOS
VICTOR TALKING MACHINES

BEAU IDEAL OF PIANOS

—Etelka Gerster, the great soprano, once commenting on a Steinway Piano she had just bought, said: "The Steinway is the beau ideal of all pianos." What more faithful description could be written of the Steinway Miniature Grand? Ideal in tone quality, ideal in volume, ideal in construction and beautiful finish, ideal in size for the house, beau ideal in everything that goes to make a piano desirable and fit for a lifelong fireside association. Contour and decoration borrowed from the French, those indefatigable people who seem to live to beautify. Graceful, almost airy effect; ample volume for a music room. Fairly like touch. Finished like a mirror. Other case styles—one suggests the Colonial—$800 upward.

—The Vertegrand, superior to any other upright, equal to most large grands, $525 upward. Come and hear them—alongside Steinway Grands.

MARIN FERRY TO GO THROUGH

Promoter Says He Will Stay With It Until Successful. Oakland Boats Run.

Editor TRIBUNE:—Relative to the statement in the San Francisco papers of this morning's issue wherein from Oakland comes the intimation that the Oakland-Bay Bridge ferry promoters are placed in a questionable light, allow me to say that I shall place myself in an answerable position and make this statement. I am waiting for a reply from Mr. E. A. Haron of the Realty Syndicate whether or not that company will back up a subsidy contract for a substantial figure. Any report that I expected to abandon this proposition or give it up is incorrect, for I have enough hang-to-it to stay with the ferry proposition as long as the waters stay in the bay. I am working night and day getting subsidy contracts signed. I will take the matter before the Real Estate Dealers' Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

DEPENDS ON BUSINESS MEN.

It all depends upon the Oakland business men and property owners. It is useless to talk subsidy to any firm in Oakland, where that firm is a branch of a San Francisco house. The Owl Drug Company and Hales are the only two stores in Oakland, which have stores in San Francisco that have signed, and if I were to put in print the remarks of a San Francisco storekeeper who has Oakland branches, the talk wouldn't look good in print.

San Francisco doesn't want this ferry. Why? Because San Francisco does not want Oakland to get any Marin County trade, and if I had any way Oakland would have not only the trade of Marin County, but the Sacramento Valley as well. Let's get busy and bring business into Oakland. Yours Respectfully, ED B. WEBSTER.

COMES TO CITY TO FACE TRIAL

Man Accused of Fraud Pays His Own Expenses to Scene of His Arrest.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—E. J. Waldman of San Diego, who is wanted in this city on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, and who left the southern city on August 26 en route here, intending to surrender himself to the police, arrived today, however, but visited several places around town and was quietly walking up Sutter street at 2 o'clock this afternoon when he was seen and recognized by Detective Bell, who placed him under arrest.

Waldman was notified a few days ago that a warrant had been issued for his arrest at the instance of D. H. Cohn, but that Cohn was unwilling to pay for transporting him to this city. He would leave immediately at his own expense.

CLAIMS $93,000 BRIDE OFFERED

Ex-Governor Says Kentuckians Offered Big Sum for Return of Taylor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Indianapolis says that Winfield Durbine, governor of Indiana from 1901 to 1906, made the sensational statement last night that soon after his inauguration as governor attempts were made to bribe him to turn over William A. Taylor, Kentucky's refugee governor, to the authorities of the State for trial on the charge of conspiracy to assassinate Governor Geobal. The offer to former Governor Durbine, according to his own statement, was $93,000 in cash. Durbine said that he had refused the offer, but that he had declined the offer, saying that he would give no consideration to the case.

Former Governor Durbine said that the offer was made to him in the shape of an invitation to meet "certain gentlemen" in Cincinnati "to discuss the case." He declined the invitation, saying that he would give no consideration to the case.

PLEA FOR U. S. NOT DENIED

Government Refuses to Give San Francisco Tents to Assist Fighting Plague.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The War Department has declined to grant the request of the Mayor of San Francisco for tents to accommodate the patients in the city hospitals who are to be moved from the buildings to reduce the chance of extending the ravages of the plague. Secretary Oliver was urged to comply with the application by Surgeon-General Wynne, but he failed to do so. Wynne's appeal, however, that he would send to the city of San Francisco what he considered necessary, but never has been answered so far to his office.

WOMEN THROG TO HEAR DELMAS AT GLASS TRIAL

Attorney for Defense in Vigorous Argument Appeals for the Acquittal of His Client.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Attorney Delmas was the matinee attraction at Temple Israel this afternoon and he drew one of the most fashionable audiences ever seen in a court room. The combination of Delmas and Heney in a single afternoon's program attracted an immense crowd.

Sheriff O'Neil and his deputies gallantly saw to it that the ladies had the best seats in the auditorium. The monotony of the ordinary court room scene was relieved by the garden of artificial flowers that clustered close to the judge's bench. There is no rule concerning hats in the court room and the opportunity for a military display was fully enjoyed.

DRESS FOR OCCASION. In honor of the occasion Mr. Delmas and Mr. Heney had discarded business garb and appeared in the dignity of black Prince Alberts. Mr. Spreckels had a seat with the prosecution and District Attorney Langdon dropped in to hear the case concluded. Among the attorneys for defense in other cases who came to listen was J. J. Barrett.

Mr. Delmas began to speak at 1:40 o'clock. He commenced with the testimony of Attorney Pillsbury, wasting no time in a single word on recitation. Attorney Pillsbury's statement that certain checks were not only admitted, but asserted the name of the auditor. It was that appeared on all these checks and vouchers, and not that of Mr. Glass.

BREAD AND WATER DIET ENDS CHAIN GANG STRIKE

Nine Prisoners Quit Work, Claiming Food Poor, but Prospects of Worse Food Ends Walk-Out.

Nine members of the chain gang working piling the dirt from the Bankers hotel site on the Lake boulevard, went on a strike this morning, claiming they were not receiving proper food. The matter was reported to Police Captain Peterson and he ordered them returned to the city prison.

Upon their arrival he placed them in the tanks and issued instructions that they be kept on bread and water until they expressed a willingness again to assist in the civic improvements. After the strikers had been confined one hour they sent word to Captain Peterson that they were ready to go back immediately, and he allowed them to go back.

Peterson thought the men had been influenced by what he calls a "sea-lay" who was trying to incite all the prisoners on the chain gang to mutiny. He declined to give the name of the "lawyer" of the rebellious prisoners.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—It is a job road that has no turn, and the great hearts who have battled with poverty cause their loved ones may take heart in the change in the fortunes of Alfonso Zelaya, son of the president of the republic of Nicaragua.

In the brief space of two years the young man has been kidnapped by his father because of his love for Miss Stella Baker, where he was sent in custody of a trusted agent of his father, returned to Washington and married the girl of his choice, has been cast off by his father and because of his wife, then reconciled. After making a precarious living, Zelaya came to San Francisco, where he was playing a piano in a concert hall, his father has been living in New York, will start for Nicaragua at once.

In December of 1905 the diplomatic corps at Washington learned of the fact that the young man, who had been sent to America to study at West Point, had suddenly disappeared on the way to the capital. Zelaya's father, who was then in Nicaragua, ministered to his needs. There was a rumor that he was wanted at home, and he was hurried south, where he was playing a piano in a concert hall, his father has been living in New York, will start for Nicaragua at once.

For a couple of months President Zelaya, used to having his own way in Nicaragua, kept the young man in his capital, but he kept the young man in Washington. An ultimatum was given him to return to the effect that he would have to go to work.

He knew, however, that many others worked and seemed happy, and made up his mind to stay. The pair were married, and in Nicaragua where he had been playing a piano, he was recognized as the son of a president.

It is a year since then, and the couple, after remaining in Philadelphia, came to New York. It is said to have been a case of hand-to-mouth existence for them. Now they are going to his home. The woman who has starved in a back room and knows what it is to want to come into his own.

Mrs. Zelaya is the adopted daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Baker of Washington and a grandchild of General Robert E. Lee. Reeves came to her family and she was placed in an orphanage from which she was taken by the Bakers.

AND GIRL HAVE ELOPED

Telegraph Chief and Pretty Operator Disappear at Same Time and Wife Makes Charges.

SANTA CRUZ, August 30.—With the arrival in this city yesterday of A. H. May, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, it was learned here that James Hopkins, local manager of the company, had left under a cloud, and the coincidental disappearance of Miss Edna Arnold, a pretty girl of the Postal office, has led to the belief that the couple has eloped.

Hopkins is a married man. His wife said: "I have learned things today which make me believe that my husband has run away with Edna Arnold."

Mrs. Arnold, mother of the girl, denied that her daughter had eloped and said that she had gone to Oakland to work as a stenographer for the Western Union Company.

Adverse reports here from Santa Cruz to the effect that in such person as Edna Arnold was employed in a telegraph office in this city or had made an appearance there, may or may not say whether there are any irregularities in Hopkins' accounts.

Hopkins is well known here and here an excellent reputation. He was a prominent athlete and for many years was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association. He disappeared last Monday shortly after the departure of Edna Arnold.

ACCUSER IS NOW ACCUSED

Lieutenant Who Charged Sergeant With Embezzlement Is Blamed for Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—With a suddenness that surprised even those who had been expecting it for months, the scandal so long impending over the former commissary administration of the Port Baker commissary department broke yesterday afternoon during the session of the court martial which is trying Sergeant Charles Grindley, the man charged by Lieutenant Thomas A. Jones with embezzlement, and falsifying the supply accounts at the artillery post. Lieutenant Jones, who is the prosecution's principal witness against the commissary sergeant the other day, felt the burden of the charges thrown upon his own shoulders.

CAPTAIN ACCUSES.

It was Captain Henry B. Clark, the commandant at Port Baker when Jones and Grindley were in charge of the commissary there, who accused Jones. Captain Clark believed Grindley to be innocent, Jones guilty, and regretted only because Jones has a wife and children, who will feel his disgrace keenly. He said that he regarded Jones as an honest man, and that brother officers have harbored the same opinion. Jones, in fact, was a parish in officers' eyes. But through all the testimony Captain Clark reiterated a counter charge that this day in his life at the school at West Point.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

A great many blood medicines contain Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or some other strong mineral. These ingredients act unpleasantly and often dangerously on the system by affecting the stomach and upsetting the digestion, and sometimes do great damage by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the body. No such results ever come from the use of S. S. S. This great medicine enjoys the distinction of being the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood remedy on the market. Pabst Blue Ribbon is a pure, healthful food—for brain-workers and muscle-workers.

Pure—because only the best barley-grain and the choicest hops are used, and absolute cleanliness marks every step in its brewing.

Food—because the Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process follows Nature closely and retains every particle of the wholesome food-values of the barley-grain which the Pabst Perfect Brewing Process transmits to the beer in predigested form.

Healthful—because the malt is nourishing, the hops are invigorating and the very low percentage of alcohol (3½%) mildly stimulates the digestive organs to proper activity.

You will find that your appetite is better, your digestion is better, your health is better, when you drink Pabst Blue Ribbon.

AND 4 CANARIES

Woman is Ordered Out of Court by Justice and Sued Elsewhere for Divorce.

Mrs. Jacob Baimes, whose husband says she keeps fourteen cats and four canaries, and who recently swore out a warrant for the arrest of Jacob Baimes, brought suit in court today. Baimes also appeared before Justice of the Peace Geary and this morning she was found not guilty. On the witness stand Baimes testified that she redeemed her watch from a pawnshop and intended to return it to her through his attorney.

Mrs. Baimes was ordered out of court by the justice who heard her severe reprimand because of her loud and boisterous actions in the courtroom. Her husband was giving testimony. Justice Geary threatened her with arrest for contempt of court and stated that if she came into court in such intoxicated condition he would send her to jail. She was told to keep quiet, but nothing could be done to prevent her from screaming in court until Constable W. C. Allen removed her into a room adjoining the court.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Jacob Baimes filed suit in the Superior Court this morning for a divorce on the ground that he objected to his wife keeping fourteen cats and four canaries. One day Mrs. Baimes, says, would sit in the street and stare at the world of mice and rats, and she said that she was so provoked at that and other things that he is anxious for a permanent separation, he alleges.

SECRETARY METCALF HOLDS CURBSTONE RECEPTION

VALLEJO, Aug. 30.—Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the city, surprised every one here yesterday by holding a regular curbstone reception. People who know him say they never saw him abandon his usual dignity so utterly, and Vallejans apparently liked him the more for it. Scores of persons shook hands with the secretary, and to sailors and citizens alike he announced his intention of vigorously urging the next Congress to establish more naval facilities at the bay, and stations about the bay.

Metcalfe started out to inspect the naval stations about the bay. He viewed the Hunter's Point dock, glimpsed Goat Island and then ran over to Mare Island, where he saw ships, shops and sailors. A dinner tendered by Admiral Lyon and Captain Phelps of the cruiser California ended the inspection tour.

HALSEY RALLIES AFTER SUFFERING RELAPSE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Theodore V. Halsey suffered a relapse at St. Francis' Hospital early last evening and it was thought for a time that fatal developments might occur from the operation for appendicitis which he underwent several weeks ago. It was said at the hospital at midnight, however, that Halsey had rallied and was resting quietly.

Mother Begins Legal Proceedings to Recover 15-Year-Old Boy She Says Is Kept From Home.

Arthur Aston, the 15-year-old son of Mrs. Aston of Fitchburg, has been noticed away from home, according to the statements made by his mother in Judge Geary's court this morning by his brother-in-law, Albert Martin, who is believed will apply for letters of guardianship. The boy has been living with Martin for the past four weeks and has caused the child's mother much worry and anxiety.

Mrs. Aston was his mother's pet and her sole comfort. She is now instituting legal proceedings for the recovery of her son. The case will be tried in Judge Geary's court.

Constable W. C. Allen has been detailed to summon Martin to court.

The boy was employed as an elevator boy at the Albany Hotel and is now at work in Schleuter's Bazaar with Alfred Martin.

CHINESE GIRL JILTS LOVER

Celestial Maid Flees and Weds While Wooer Wrestles With American Law.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Miss Donaldine Cameron of the Chinese Methodist mission of Oakland, appeared in the district court of appeal this morning in the habeas corpus case of Chun Kow Yoke.

Chun, a Chinese woman, who formerly lived with Miss Cameron, was ordered into court on August 12 at the instigation of a Chinese, who was to marry her, and Miss Cameron was ordered to produce her in court. On the day in question it appeared that the Chinese girl had fled to Chicago, and Miss Cameron was unable to produce her. The case was therefore continued until today.

When the matter was taken up this morning, Miss Cameron testified that she had received word from Chicago to the effect that Chun Kow Yoke had been married to a Chinese of that city. The judges therefore took the matter as a writ of habeas corpus under advisement and continued the case until September 23.

Mrs. Clinton was recently an inmate of the Napa Asylum for the Insane and is supposed to be again deranged mentally. She is described as 30 years of age, light blue eyes, and black hair, 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighs 130 pounds.

Patrolman Tidd was assigned to look after offenders and brought to the station J. J. Polsey, an Oakland plumber and S. E. Scott, a minister.

DIDN'T KNOW WHAT OCCURRED AT ARREST.

"I must warn you against letting grading contracts at too high figure," said City Engineer Turner to the street committee of the City Council last night.

"Work cannot be done as cheaply now as formerly," Turner continued, "but contractors are charging stiff prices even where they can sell the dirt for filling."

Then the committee recommended the rejection of Hutchinson's bid to bid to rejection of Hutchinson's bid from East grade Twenty-first avenue to East grade Twenty-first street.

Seventeen of East Twenty-first street, the contractors' bid was 80 cents per cubic yard for grading, macadamizing 8.4-10 cents per square foot, broken curbing 17 cents per lineal foot, broken curb 16 cents per square foot, each basin $75 each, conduit pipe $1.80 per lineal foot.

The Ransome Construction Company's two bids for two small places of work on the south side of Forty-sixth street were also rejected.

BIDS REJECTED.

draining modern buildings.

Meese said there would be protests, but the sewers are much needed, the present ones being rotten. He asked Deputy Street Superintendent Blair to prepare figures showing the immense sums which have been expended in repairs on the old sewers.

City Engineer Turner was directed to prepare plan and estimate of cost to wall along the channel from Eighth to Twelfth streets in the north arm of the estuary.

Michael Murphy's bid for construction of sewers in East Twenty-fifth and street and East Twenty-sixth street was laid over. East Twenty-sixth street was laid over. The bid was $1.67 for 8-inch pipe, lampshades, brick manholes, $12.50 for 12-inch pipe, $75 each for cast-iron basins and $1.80 per foot for 8-inch conduit pipe.

T. W. Darrow's bid of 25 cents per square foot for laying a cement sidewalk on Sixth-third street, between Idaho and Baker streets, was recommended; it being stated that the contractor was being staid at a lawsuit.

SEWER PROPOSAL. All bids for construction of 12-inch sewer in Eleventh street, between Clay and Washington, were rejected as too high. The lowest bid was $1.85 per foot for pipe, 12 1/2-inch Y-branches $3.00 each, brick manholes $88 each. The sewer contractor, provided it is all done before the 15th of next month, at a lower figure, had bid on 8-inch pipe at $1.00 a foot, but it was not that sized pipe called for in the advertisement.

Though the Blake & Bliger prices for grading on Linda avenue were deemed too high, the committee recommended award of contract, as it was stated there is little grading required and the avenue is in a dangerous condition if not improved before winter rains come. The bid is 95 cents per cubic yard for grading.

PROTESTS EXPECTED. The committee also recommended that new sewers be ordered in Jefferson, Grove, Castro and Brush streets, from Second to Thirteenth or Fourteenth streets of sufficient depth to allow of taking CHANCE BY PRIVATE CONTRACT.

Notwithstanding some protests it was recommended that East Twenty-eighth street, from Thirteenth avenue to Val street, be improved by private contract, provided it is all done before the 15th of next month.

Several property owners on Franklin street, near Plodmont avenue, among them D. Kempton, asked the committee to rush the sewer and macadamizing to the street. There is also a proposition to widen Franklin street at that locality to sixty feet, it now being only thirty feet.

When it was suggested that the widening might be done by taking an additional strip along the north side it was stated this would necessitate moving four fine houses and tearing up highly improved yards.

The matter was laid over to see if the street could be widened by taking a strip from the lots on the south side of the street.

FINANCE COMMITTEE HOLD UP UNAUTHORIZED CLAIMS

Ordinance to Revise Salary List Besides Creating Captain of Police Will Be Further Considered.

Claims were being recommended and passed along swimmingly last night by the finance committee of the City Council when an interruption occurred in the form of a $93 bill for sixty yards of linoleum, or at the rate of $1.55 a yard. This, so Chairman Pendleton declared, seemed to him to be an excessive price. "It's certainly too high," said Ellsworth, who mentioned a lower figure at which he said his office linoleum had been put in. Then it was criticized because the linoleum had been requisitioned without authority from the council or the finance committee. The claim was dated July 20, the requisition being signed by Acting Chief of Police W. J. Peterson, for sixty yards of linoleum from the house of R. J. Chamberlain for use in the police office. Approved by Mayor Mott and Secretary Powers July 31. "It is getting so that everybody and anybody sends for what they want and then asks us to approve and pay the bill," said Chairman Pendleton. "I shall chant find out that their money is being up they will ask to see the requisition price of $1.55 a yard for linoleum is excessive. Chamberlain must put in a new bill."

BILL IS REJECTED.
The other members agreed with Chairman Pendleton and the linoleum claim was rejected. A written guarantee for 20 yards of top of this came in a Board of Works requisition for $499 for "repapering, repairing and renovating Department Two, Police Court."

BILL IS HELD UP.
"Hold it up," said Ellsworth, and held up, or "laid over" was marked on the paper.
A requisition to fix up Police Court No. 1 at a cost of $196 was recommended. It was decided to hold back the $196.40 in the 1900 appropriation asked by the Board of Works for excess charges and Architect Soderberg's fees in building the Magnolia-street engine house. The amount represents the architects' fee which Pendleton said are not yet legally due.

FLUSHERS NEEDED.
Over the appropriating of $200 to buy two flushing machines there was debate. Pendleton urged putting the item in the annual budget to take his chances. Said he: "The Board of Works has asked us for $500.00 for its departments next year. Besides the money is going out in chunks for this and that, and I think we should authorize only those expenditures which are vitally necessary."
Councilmen Albee, Elliot and Ellsworth spoke in favor of flushing machines. Secretary Fawcett of the Board of Public Works explained that in winter the flushers were used to remove slush from the bituminous streets, while in summer they could be utilized as street sprinklers.
Ellsworth said he would cut out two of the ten sprinkling wagons he had proposed by resolution to purchase for the city.

WOULD IMPROVE INDEXES.
When a resolution providing for printing the codified city ordinances was taken up Ellsworth said the index to the work was "abominable." The new ordinance and amendments had been put out by Judge Geary, who had added to the resolution was later improved. The resolution was referred to Ellsworth's committee to be printed in the book of ordinances.
The committee recommended that the city electrician be provided with a clerical assistant at a salary of $125 a month, though some of the councilmen wanted to fix the salary at $150.
It was explained that under the new building ordinance the city electrician had much of his time occupied supervising electrical construction in new buildings.
The $2000 appropriation for a storm sewer in Pleasant Valley was referred for future action.

MAKING SALARIES PERMANENT.
An ordinance was recommended for passage fixing salaries and offices as follows: two electrical inspectors, $175 a month; two electrical inspectors and deputy building inspectors, $150 a month; chief clerk, superintendent of streets at $200 and another at $150 a month; chief clerk, Board of Public Works, $150; four other clerks, $125 each; one clerk and stenographer, $100; to deputies, $150 each.
An ordinance which had been prepared after conference with the Mayor, and designed to fix salaries permanently where persons are now employed under resolution in many instances, was brought up.
Two or three councilmen had not been consulted, it appeared. And it was decided to defer action until next Tuesday night, when a time will be fixed at which all the councilmen will be consulted as to the features of the ordinance.
It provides for these salaries: Secretary Board of Public Works, $200 a month; deputy city clerk, $175; license and market inspector, $100; assistant city hall, $90; city wharfman, $125; superintendent of fire alarm and police telephone, $200; helmsman, $100; line-man, $125; each park keeper, $80; smoker, driver, tillerman, steward and houseman of chartered engine, $100.
